STORY AND ARTWORK BY PETER BOT

ALL EVENTS AND CHARACTERS IN THIS PUBLICATION ARE ENTIRELY FICTIONAL AND IN NO WAY THE AUTHOR WANTS TO PROMOTE THE USE OF ILLEGAL NARCOTICS. JUST THE ONES THAT MOTHER NATURE GIVES US IN ITS PURE FORM.

A few millions of years ago, on a planet far superior than ours, the justice department just sentenced one of their top criminals to solitary confinement.

of years until a strange planet stood in it's way...

And like this, just on a sunny morning on a planet called earth...

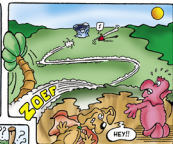

I just want to hear that it's still there

Psst, euh.... it's still there... But... Hmmm...

It's just that some sort of strange apple is rolling one big joint with it all...

Hey Budes!!!! You think I can expect some help or what?!

SUPER DUKE
to the rescue!!

Nobody is eating the friends of Super Duke you stinking rotten son of an apple!!

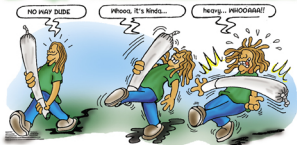

Right on Duke, you tell him!
Kill him, squash him, smash trash, slam...

Whooops, don't think this is part of Duke's master plan....not good, not good!!!

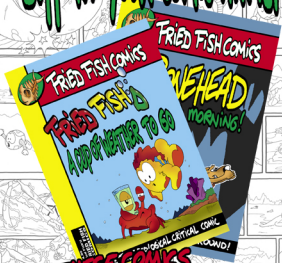

So in the end, we still got our apple pie, looks good...
